We use your health information within the AHN Neighborhood Hospital and disclose your health information outside of the AHN Neighborhood Hospital for the reasons described in this Notice. The following categories describe some of the ways that we may use and disclose your health information. The term “may” means that the AHN Neighborhood Hospital is permitted under federal law to use or disclose this information without obtaining an additional or specific authorization from you to do so. Even though we may be permitted to use or disclose information in a given instance, it does not mean that we will disclose the information. We will restrict use and disclosure concerning AIDS / HIV, mental health, behavioral health and alcohol and drug treatment or other particular categories of health information based upon state law if state law is more stringent or provides additional patient privacy safeguards not included in federal regulations.

1. Treatment

We use your PHI to enable delivery of health care services and for other activities that are included within the definition of “treatment” as set out in 45 C.F.R. § 164.501. Information obtained by a nurse, physician, or other member of your health care team will be recorded in your record and used to determine the course of treatment that should work best for you. We may disclose your PHI to other doctors, medical students, hospitals, pharmacies or other persons who are integral to providing you care. For example, a doctor treating you for a broken leg may need to know if you have diabetes because diabetes may slow the healing process. We also may disclose your PHI to others who may help in your care, such as your spouse, children or parents.

2. Payment

We may use and disclose your PHI for all activities that are included within the definition of “payment” as set out in 45 C.F.R. § 164.501. This PHI may include information that identifies you, as well as your diagnosis, procedures, and supplies used. Additionally, we may also seek prior payment approval from your health plan concerning treatments you are scheduled to receive or determine if your health plan will pay for the treatment. For example, obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require that your relevant PHI be disclosed to your health plan to obtain approval for hospital admission.

3. Health Care Operations

We may use and disclose your PHI for all activities included within the definition of “health care operations” as set out in 45 C.F.R. § 164.501. These uses and disclosures help us maintain and improve patient care and may be used for our health care operations or the operations of another entity that has a direct treating relationship with you. We may use PHI about many patients to ascertain what new services to offer, what practices are not needed, and whether certain methods of treatment are effective. We may also disclose PHI to doctors, nurses, technicians and other persons to improve the quality of treatment and service.

- Appointment reminders. We may use and disclose your PHI to contact you and remind you of an appointment.
- Health-related benefits and services. We may use and disclose your PHI to tell you of health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.

We may also disclose information to notify, or assist in notifying, a family member, personal representative or another person responsible for your care of your locations. If you are unable to agree or object to such a disclosure, we may disclose such information as necessary if we determine that it is in your best interest based on our professional judgment.

- Clergy. We may disclose your PHI as permitted by law to ministers, priests or other clergy in order to help them take care of your spiritual needs.

4. Legal Obligations and Public Policy Disclosures

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

Although your record is the property of AHN, the PHI in it belongs to you. You have the following rights:

1. Right to Access, Inspect and Copy

You have the right to look at or get copies of your PHI in a designated record set. Generally, a “designated record set” contains medical and billing records, as well as other records that are used to make decisions about your health care benefits. However, you may not inspect or copy psychotherapy notes or certain other information that may be contained in a designated record set. You may request that we provide copies in a format other than photocopies, including electronic access. We will use the format you request unless we cannot practicably do so. You must make a request in writing to obtain access to your PHI. To inspect and / or copy your PHI, you may obtain a form to request access by using the contact information listed at the end of this Notice. We may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for responding to these requests. We may deny your request to inspect and copy your PHI in certain limited circumstances. If you are denied access to your information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. A licensed health care professional chosen by us will review your request and the denial. The person performing this review will not be the same one who denied your initial request. Under certain conditions, our denial will not be reviewable. If this event occurs, we will inform you in our denial that the decision is not reviewable.

2. Right to Amend

If you believe that your PHI is incorrect or incomplete, you have the right to request that we amend or append your PHI. Your request must be in writing, and it must explain why the information should be amended. We may deny your request. If we accept your request to amend the information, we will make reasonable efforts to inform others, including people you name, of the amendment and to include the changes in any future disclosures of that information.

3. Right to an Accounting of Disclosures

You have a right to an accounting of certain disclosures of your PHI as prescribed by law that are for reasons other than treatment, payment or health care operations. An “accounting of disclosures” provides a list of disclosures of PHI. The list includes the date(s) of the disclosure, to whom we made the disclosure, a brief description of the information disclosed, and the purpose for the disclosure. The first list you request within a 12-month period will be free. If you request this list more than once in a 12-month period, we may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for responding to these additional requests.

4. Right to Request Restrictions

You may request restrictions on our use and disclosure of your PHI for treatment, payment and health care operations. However, we are not obligated to agree to your request in all situations. Any agreement we may make to a request for additional restrictions must be in writing signed by a person authorized to make such an agreement on our behalf. You may terminate this restriction if you submit the termination in writing, or if we inform you that we are terminating the restriction. Any termination will apply only to PHI created or received after receipt of the termination. In your written request tell us: (1) the information whose disclosure you want to limit; and (2) how you want to limit our use and / or disclosure of the information. You have the right to request that we communicate with you in confidence about your PHI by alternative means or to an alternative address. For example, you may ask that we contact you only at your work address or via your work email. Although you may initiate your request verbally, you must make your request in writing. You do not need to provide a reason for your request. We must reasonably honor your request. However, the request must allow us to communicate and serve you effectively.
